What's Happening in Canmore

November 11

A Day of Remembrance

"Every November 11th, Canadians across the country pause in a silent moment of remembrance for the men and women who served our country during wartime. We honour those who fought for Canada - in the First World War (1914-1918), the Second World War (1939-1945) and the Korean War (1950-1953). More than 1,500,000 Canadians served overseas - more than 100,000 died. They gave their lives and their future so that we may live in peace."

November 14-16

The Vic Lewis International Band Festival Canmore

Strike up the band! Over 1,000 young band musicians will converge on Canmore this November to make music with some of the finest band directors, both jazz and concert, in North America. All workshops and clinics are open to the public and they're FREE.

Hawker Homefront

I hope everyone enjoyed Halloween, despite the cold weather. It's always so beautiful walking around the neighbourhood in the dark, seeing the jacklelanterns and ghosts and goblins. Little Callum dressed up as a lion and Lauren was puppy dog. They both had a lot of fun trick or treating and have enough candy to last a lifetime.....maybe I'll have to help them out a little!
